FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Morbark® Welcomes Kevin Cotter to Management Team

WINN, MICH. – January 26, 2017 – Morbark, a leading manufacturer of equipment used in forestry, recycling, tree care, landscaping, sawmill and biomass markets, is pleased to welcome Kevin Cotter to its staff as Governmental Sales Manager. Cotter brings a wealth of municipal and business expertise to the role.

“We’re excited to bring Kevin Cotter to our team,” said John Foote, Morbark Senior Vice President. “With his knowledge and experience, he’ll be able to jump in on day one to work with municipalities and increase Morbark’s market share in the industry.”

Cotter’s governmental experience is well-known, as he served as a member of Michigan’s House of Representatives from January of 2011 through December of 2016, representing District 99. For the past two years, he was House Speaker. Prior to his political career, Cotter was a partner at the Kerr Law Firm, PLLC, in Mount Pleasant, Mich., and had worked with two companies in the transportation industry, supervising shipments, human resources management and safety operations.

“Morbark is an incredible local company with a rich history, and I am proud to join their team,” said Cotter. “I look forward to helping municipalities navigate and utilize the government sales programs so they can more easily acquire the best equipment for them, which is Morbark equipment.”

Cotter earned a bachelor’s degree in entrepreneurship and business administration, as well as a Master of Science in administration from Central Michigan University. He also earned his Juris Doctorate from Thomas M. Cooley Law School.

Morbark is a member of various co-operative purchasing programs, including NJPA, GSA and multiple state contracts.
